FIRING BOOMERANGS.

Considerable sharp practice has been reported from different parts of the State by those opposed to Captain Canavan. The County Central Committee of Lander appointed delegates and instructed them for Adams instead of calling primaries. There were different tests from those ordered by the State Central Committee. This sort of thing is said to be against the advice of Governor Adams, who thinks it unwise to give those opposed to him so much capital against him. Matt Canavan is too smart a politician not to use such a weapon with telling force. There will undoubtedly be opposing delegations from Lander, Nye and probably Esmeralda counties.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Those who have the Veterans' hospital scheme in hand seem to have a great deal of joy over it. They are riding all over California pretending to look after a "favorable locality" for the building. At the same time they are spending a good deal of money; over $6,000 have been squandered so far. There will be a call for more contributions when the foundation of the structure is laid. The whole gag should be discharged and new men chosen to fill their places.

The State election in Maine will be held on the second Monday in September, and will be an important one for that State. There are to be chosen a Governor, an Executive Council and a Legislature for two years terms, and four members of Congress on a general ticket.

Amena, the daughter of the chief of the Algerian revolt, is the great beauty of the Arab tribes, and is as accomplished as she is lovely. She takes her courier and rides as fast and far as her father, with a courage that is not excelled by any of the bold riders of the tribes.

A rumor has been in circulation in Washington for a day or two that ex-Secretary Blaine has assured the straight-out Republicans of Virginia of his hearty indorsement of their course and his support in the coming campaign.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

New Zealand Coal.
NEW YORK, August 26.
The Journal here has the following Washington special: While this country is exporting millions of gallons of coal oil every year, and while California is the great mineral State of this country, it is learned that the State is literally importing coal from New Zealand. Colonel Griffin of New Zealand writes to the State Department that considerable quantities of coal are being shipped from New Zealand to San Francisco. He states that the constantly-increasing demand for coal in California has directed the attention of the people of Australia and New Zealand to their coal mines, and a considerable business has sprung up in the shipping of coal to the United States. From New South Wales alone nearly 100,000 tons have been shipped to San Francisco, and the mines of New Zealand are being rapidly developed, with the expectation of doing a thriving business in this line. The coal, he says, sells in San Francisco at $6.25 per ton, and as it costs but $3.75 to mine and ship it there, a handsome profit is left to exporters.

He Talked Out of School.
WASHINGTON, August 26.

General Sturgis, Governor of the Soldiers' Home, who received the first news of his removal and banishment to Montana from the newspapers, received his orders from the Department to-day. The blow came upon him like a bolt from a clear sky. He said to-day that he had taken the duty with the understanding that he was to hold the place four years, when he will be retired; but he offended the army politicians by his bold exposure of their system of petty stealing. Being summoned before the Congressional Committee which was examining charges against the management of the Home, he frankly told the facts, and excited thereby the anger and enmity of persons high in rank. The General is firm in his belief that his removal is caused by nothing else than his efforts to honestly perform his duties at the Soldiers' Home. His testimony given before the committee of Congress was to the effect that two of the Commission were in the habit of receiving vegetables, ice, etc. from the Home, and using their office for personal benefit in other ways.

Arthur Having a Grand Time.
NEWPORT, August 26.

The dinner given to President Arthur to-night by ex-Governor Morgan of New York was a brilliant and select affair. The President met many distinguished guests at the reception given by Charles H. Russell of New York, over 300 people being present. Later in the evening the President attended a ball given by Commodore Baldwin of the United States navy, at his villa. The President attended to considerable official business early in the day, and to-morrow will visit Coasters' Island harbor in company of the Secretary of the Navy. He will also visit the polo grounds, attend the fete champetre and dine with John Jacob Astor in the evening.

A Florida Vengeance Party.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., August 26.

A mob met the train containing the colored prisoners, Savage and James, this morning at Madison, and 12 or 15 rushed in and riddled the prisoners with bullets. They had first cut the wires and prevented communication. The prisoners had killed Frank Patterson during an election row in the case of Bisbee and Finley. They were on their way to have a new trial.

Loss of Life and Property by a Texas Flood.

ALEXANDER, Texas, August 26.
A terrible rain or waterspout caused the head of Boque creek above Stevensville to overflow on the 24th, destroying property amounting to $100,000. Mrs. Hart was drowned, her house being dashed to pieces. Other families were saved by climbing on the roofs.

A Boat-Race Swindle.
AUBURN, N. Y., August 26.

The Advertiser will say: Courtney told his friends he was going to win at Saratoga and they backed him heavily in the foot pool. The Union Springs people took thousands, one young man's losses reaching $3,000. All the sporting men here pronounce the race an outrageous robbery.

A Murdering Ravisher Lynched.
MONTGOMERY, Ala., August 26.

The Jeannette Survivors.
WASHINGTON, August 25.

Lieutenant W. Danenhaw passed through the city to-day en route to Capon Springs, W. Va. He says his report of the circumstances which attended the loss of the Jeannette will not be ready before September 15.

Acting Secretary of the Navy Walker has received a cable dispatch from Minister Hunt, stating that Lieutenant Berry of the Rodgers and Chief Engineer Melville and Norris of the Jeannette left St. Petersburg yesterday for Liverpool via Berlin, where they will be joined by Niderman and other survivors of the Jeannette.

A Seaside Fire.
NEWPORT, R. I., August 26.

The Cliff House, a Summer hotel, was burned this morning and two adjoining cottages, run in connection with the hotel, badly damaged. Many guests were in bed, but were aroused in time and saved the greater portion of their effects.

FOREIGN TELEGRAPH.

EGYPT'S TROUBLE.
The Action on Thursday—A One-Sided Report That 3,000 English Troops Stand Off 10,000 Egyptians—The British General Calls for More Troops.

LONDON, August 26.
General Wolsley, in a dispatch to the War Office, recounts the engagement at Magfar on Thursday, in which he held his ground the whole day against 10,000 Egyptians. His forces numbered 3,000. He says: "I advanced before daybreak with the Household Cavalry, two horse-artillery guns, thirty mounted infantry and 1,000 men from the York and Lancaster regiments and the marines. After some skirmishing I took possession of a dam which the enemy had constructed across the canal between the villages of Magfar and Mahata. During the engagement two squadrons of the Household Cavalry charged the enemy's broken infantry very gallantly. I soon found the enemy was being largely reinforced from Tel-el-Kebir. I could see teams arriving, and thought it inconsistent with our condition for the Queen's army to retire before any number of Egyptian troops, and so decided to hold my ground until reinforcements arrived. All day long I had an Egyptian force of 10,000 with two guns on my front and on my right flank. The precision of the enemy's artillery fire was very good, but fortunately they fired common shell nearly all day, and when they did fire shrapnel the fuse was badly adjusted. The enemy had two cavalry regiments in line. Our horses having been recently on board ship were not in condition to gallop much. The two-horse artillery guns were served with pluck and ability. Our casualties were slight. Captain Parr's mounted infantry distinguished itself. All the troops engaged did well." In a telegram dispatched at 2 o'clock this morning, General Wolsley adds: "I omitted to say that I had with me yesterday two Gatling guns worked by seamen who handled them admirably."

ALEXANDRIA, August 26.
The Khedive has received information that Arabi Pasha has withdrawn 5,000 of his best troops from Kraf El Dwar to Tel El Kebir. Deserters from Arabi Pasha's forces state that Hanfi Pasha has been poisoned for disputing with Arabi Pasha. The Austrian man-of-war Nautilus remains off Aboukir. The effort to obtain the release of her boat's crew, which were captured by Egyptians on Monday, has been fruitless. Reliable information has been received from the interior to the effect that the Nile is rising rapidly, but is much below the level reached this time last year.

LONDON, August 26.
The Standard has reason to believe that General Wolsley has applied for more troops. This probably means the Third Division of the army corps at Alexandria. It is stated on good authority that 2,000 Albanians have enlisted for service in Egyptian quarantine and other departments, as it is feared the native troops cannot be trusted. Troops are urgently required at the quarantine station at Moses' Well, near Suez. A blockade of the Egyptian coast was established yesterday.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 26.
Lord Dufferin, the British Ambassador, has promised that pilgrims to Mecca will be permitted to travel the Suez canal as usual. The enemy's loss is estimated at 4,000. The first shell fired by the enemy passed a few feet over General Wolsley's head and took off the leg of a horse ten yards behind him. The enemy throughout the fight declined to come to close quarters. The two gunners killed were struck by shrapnel near Wolsley's position. The troops behaved well and were all day without water or food, after marching ten miles through heavy sand. The enemy's cavalry swept around the British right flank, but did not come within striking distance. The Egyptian's fire was too hot for the Life Guards to cross the opening toward them. The British infantry passed the day lying down behind banks and in ditches. After the engagement General Wolsley rode to Ismailia and returned late in the evening. Reinforcements arrived during the night, but no guns until early next morning, having had great difficulty in getting through the sand. The Egyptian artillery fought well and fired much more accurate than at Kafer el Dwar. The infantry were contemptible and the cavalry little better. Many of both those arms were observed breaking from the ranks and dispersing under our fire and shell.

ALEXANDRIA, August 26.
The Austrian crew of the frigate Nautilus, captured by the Egyptians, has been liberated.

At 1:30 this morning the enemy approached our lines, apparently endeavoring to cut off the British outposts, near the Mahmondick canal, but retired again on the alarm being given.

Two Tunisian merchants, who escaped from Kraf el Dwar, have arrived here. They declare the country throughout generally dissatisfied with Arabi Pasha and anxious for peace. This applies particularly to Cairo.

ISMAILIA, August 26.
All the troops except the Irish fusiliers and three batteries of artillery, have gone to the front. Two squadrons of Indian cavalry have arrived and also gone forward. On Thursday the British gunners were so exhausted after some hours continuous work that they were obliged to lie down while the drivers worked the guns.

ALEXANDRIA, August 26.
It is stated there is an unexpected hitch in political matters. Riaz Pasha, who was summoned by the Khedive to form a new ministry, refuses to take the office if the Chamber of Notables is restored, as he considers such an institution as unsuited to Egypt as to India.

Wants to be a Soldier.
LONDON, August 26.

A letter from Prince Ibrahim, brother of the Khedive, to Lord Granville, is published, asking that he be allowed to serve with the British army in Egypt. Lord Granville replied that the Government regretted its inability to accept the Prince's offer of service.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

Killing of a Drunken Officer.
SILVER CITY, N. M., August 25.

James Burns, Deputy Sheriff at Hualapai, the principal copper mining camp, was shot and killed at the Centennial rooms here at 10 o'clock to-night. He had been drunk about town for several days past and was firing off his revolver in the public streets. Deputy Sheriff Moore attempted to arrest Burns, armed with the necessary warrant. Burns resisted, and drawing his revolver, fired at Moore, when the latter killed him.

The Enterprise heads an item (copied from the GAZETTE) "The Richest Mine in the World." The Plumas mine spoken of is undoubtedly a rich mine, but is not a fly-speck on a watermelon compared with Divoll's pocket mine in Sonora, Tuolumne county, where the men take out a fortune every day.

Farmer Treadway and C. E. Laughon are working with might and main for the Republican nomination of Governor and Lieutenant Governor respectively.

Miss Adelaide Waters went east on the morning express, to fill a profitable engagement. She promises to make a high mark as an actress. Her sister, Mrs. Hofst, of Carson, came down to see her off.

Frank Clugage, the king of stage-men, arrived in Reno last night from Wyoming, where he controls 400 miles of staging, and left this morning for the south, to look after matters between Bodie and Hawthorne.

C. N. Noteware, A. C. Pratt and A. Livingston are delegates from Genoa to the State Convention at Reno, and W. J. Marsh, A. S. Williams and Robt. Fulestone to the Judicial Convention to be held at Carson.

Mr. Chalmers, Superintendent of the Morning Star mine, in Alpine county, passed through Genoa Wednesday, upon his return from England where he has been on business concerning the working of rebellious ore taken from the mine.

Ed. Yerington returned from Tahoe this morning. He caught a fish of trout, many of which would weigh fifty pounds. He takes home with him a bronzed face and a skinned nose, and a pleasant remembrance of attractive tourists of the other sex.

The Governor's Progress.

The Eureka Sentinel says: Gov. Kinkaid arrived from the West by Thursday night's train. He was met at the depot by Col. E. N. Robinson, Gen. P. E. Connor and other prominent citizens, and escorted to rooms in the Clark building. The Union Band was in attendance and discoursed number of airs. When the party had arrived at the rooms a large number of citizens, irrespective of party, proceeded to pay their respects to His Excellency. Wine flowed like water, and many bumpers were drank to the health of the distinguished visitor. You can bet that it was a royal old time, and that there were lots of "hot coppers" next morning.

A Carson Whopper.

The Tribune says: "A month ago on the road from Tahoe to Truckee we saw ten million young quail, and will wager a trifle that after next Thursday evening not ten will be seen along that 14-mile road. We have seen thousands of ducks in the tules near Walley's hot springs arrive on the first day of April and the old drake would walk up to the bank and, sticking one of his flat feet to his back, clap his wings and laugh like a jackass."

Timber Inspector.

Hon. Thomas Robinson of Newark is shortly to have the appointment of Timber Inspector for the State of Nevada. The appointment is expected to be made within the next thirty days. The office is worth $1,200 a year. Perhaps Mr. Robinson will turn his attention to the Chinamen who are slaughtering wood in the neighboring hills, or to anybody else who is cutting timber without proper warrant. There is plenty of work for him to do, if he means business.

New and Stylish.

Abrahams Bros. of the White House are opening a large stock of seasonable goods, perhaps the finest and most stylish stock of clothing ever brought to Nevada. Every article in the lot was selected by a member of the firm, whose taste in such matters no one can dispute. Intending purchasers are invited to examine these goods—in fact, everybody is welcome to take a look at them, for they will stand the test of criticism in every respect.

THE MORMON INSANE ASYLUM.

It is described as a Sink-hole of Filth and Wretchedness.

Dr. Tucker visited the Reno Asylum, and pronounced it nearly perfect in all respects. The next insane asylum he visited was the Utah institution, which he condemned in unmeasured terms. He says he found 21 patients, 12 males and 9 females all rolling in the filth and dirt. Two of the patients were sane, and why they were in such a place no one knows.

In a yard of this institution were iron cages, kept for the purpose of confining the patients, a number of whom were ironed hand and foot. An attendant said they gently chastised these patients with a stick and strap, the latter being used on the women.

The stretch about the place was unbearable and the filth was like that of a pigpen. The place is in charge of a Mormon by the name of Seymour B. Young, a nephew of the extinct prophet Brigham. Dr. Tucker says: "I have, during the last four months, visited four asylums in New South Wales, three in Victoria, two in Acland, two in Tasmania, three in New Zealand, one in Honolulu, three in California, one in Nevada and the one in Utah, and in no instance have I seen sights so horrible as those of today."

The Salt Lake Tribune says of Dr. Tucker's report of what he saw at the Mormon asylum: No words are wasted on display, but the Doctor tells in regular Julius Caesar style exactly what he saw and smelled. The recital shows a state of facts that are a disgrace to the Territory, the country, the city, and all concerned with the management of local affairs or with the asylum itself. The person in charge of the asylum complained of the unannounced visit. "You should have given me notice," said he, "so that I could have cleaned the place up and prepared to receive you." He made no pretense that the rooms or the patients were in worse plight than ordinary; on the contrary, the implication clearly was that the visitors saw everything in its ordinary state, which would have been changed if he had been advised of the visit. It is fortunate for the cause of truth that no notice of the visit was given, although it isn't likely that a person of such blunted susceptibilities would have been able to make much change. The Doctor was sickened by the distress and fetid odor of the nasty place. It is a marvel that some fatal contagion does not break out there; it is a moral and material plague-spot.

A Promising Mine.

The Four Hills quartz mine is, from all accounts, destined to become one of the leading mines of Sierra county, Cal. The claim is located on the same range, and between the famous Sierra Buttes and Plumas Eureka mines. The vein can be worked to a great depth by tunnel, and sufficient ground is already opened by the present tunnel to furnish the mill with ore for an indefinite period of time. Next season ten more stamps will be added to the mill which is now in process of erection. The scheme is strictly a private one, and the mine owned principally by San Francisco parties. A better and engine, with other quartz-mill fixtures, are at the depot here, awaiting shipment north, and more machinery will be along in a few days. Everything is first-class, which shows that the owners of the Four Hills have confidence in their mine, and are not afraid to spend money to develop it. The country is full of good mines awaiting capital to develop them.

Lesson Items.

[From the Advocate of the 24th.]

About 100 soldiers are at work on the telegraph line between Forts Klamath and Bidwell.

Almost the entire family of Mr. Woodstock living near town are down with the chills and fever.

It is said large numbers of cattle are dying on the ranges from a disease supposed to be black-leg.

The teacher's Institute will be held in Susanville, September 6, at which time every teacher in the county is expected to be present.

The third annual meeting of the Plumas, Lassen, Sierra and Modoc Agricultural Association is to take place at Greenville, Monday, September 18, and continue 6 days.

Dalton the wagon man from Petaluma left yesterday morning with 17 head of fine horses for the lower country. These animals were taken in exchange for wagons.

Mr. E. V. Spencer starts with his sister, Mrs. C. McDiarmid, for Reno to-morrow. She is in very poor health and goes to San Francisco for medical attendance.

Free Lectures To-Night.

F. J. Culver will portray the evils of intemperance to-night at the Baptist Church, and Dr. J. L. York will entertain the people with a free disquisition on "Common Sense," at the theater. As the Doctor is pretty well supplied with that which he lectures upon, those who go to hear him will be well entertained.

Sunday at the Arcade.

There will be delicious young venison, broiled, for breakfast, and roast turkey and baked spring chicken for dinner, with toothsome fixings too numerous to mention, and all for a lonesome half-dollar.

THE JONES & KINKAID.

A Band of Comstock Mining Sharpshooters Down Upon Pyramid.

Gen. Chas. Forman, E. D. Boyle, Chancellor Derby and Alvaro Evans, with J. H. Kinkaid in the rear, left this morning in one of Tom Hymers' fancy rigs for Pyramid District, to take a look at the Jones & Kinkaid mine. It is to be hoped that the visit of these distinguished gentlemen will result in drawing attention to Pyramid District, which if located in some out-of-the-way wilderness would be a booming mining section. It is situated about 80 miles from Reno, near Pyramid Lake, and shows a highly mineralized belt of country nearly a mile in width and three miles in length, so far as traced. This belt shows immense croppings upon five ridges running nearly parallel, in an almost easterly and westerly direction. The country rock is porphyry and the ledge-matter quartz and quartzite. The mines upon which the most work has been done are the Crown Prince and the J. & K., though there are others upon which some money has been expended. The J. & K. Company have sunk a shaft to a depth of 400 feet, and made considerable underground explorations. They have also run a tunnel 600 feet through the country lying north of their ledge, which, when extended 400 feet further, will encounter the ledge at a depth of 200 feet below the bottom of the shaft and some 400 feet north from it. The ledge is nearly 50 feet between the walls, and assays favorably, showing well in silver. On the 370-foot level four feet of the vein gives average assays of $87 per ton. There is a large vein on the south of the main ledge which yields a high per cent of copper, with silver and gold. The J. & K. would doubtless prove a good property in hands of practical men who do not jump stiff-legged at a mining proposition. The precious metals are there, that is certain, and one day the mine will be a source of profit to somebody.

Central Committee Meeting.

The Republican County Central Committee met at the Justice Court-room this afternoon. The following members were present: J. C. Smith, W. H. Young, Wm. Joy, R. H. Kinney and J. F. Aitken. They canvassed the vote polled at the primaries held August 19th and found it as follows: S. Bishop, 228; D. B. Boyd, 115; M. T. Conant, 187; W. F. Everett, 202; H. M. Frost, 208; F. C. Fogar, 20; George Gregg, 427; T. K. Hyman, 200; A. Lindley, 224; C. F. Moeller, 14; J. L. McFarlin, 302; M. Nathan, 421; W. E. Price, 426; M. J. Smith, 320; George Troy, 1; W. D. Wagar, 205. The following gentlemen received the largest number of votes polled were declared elected: S. Bishop, George Gregg, A. Lindley, J. L. McFarlin, M. Nathan, M. J. Smith, W. E. Price, H. M. Frost.

On motion it was ordered that the Republican primary election be held on Saturday, September 23d, between the hours of 1 and 7 o'clock P. M., to elect delegates to the County Convention. Election to be held as follows: Wadsworth, Gladding Hall; Glendale, Glendale Hotel; Pyramid, Monroe House; Browns, Everett's shop; Washoe, Marker's store; Frank-ton, Justice's office; Peavine, —; Verdi, Bacon's store; Duck Flat, —; Salt Marsh, —; Clark's, Mrs. Bidleman; Reno, Justice's office.

The following appointment of delegates was made: Reno, 22; Wadsworth, 8; Browns, 8; Washoe, 2; Frank-ton, 3; Glendale, 2; Verdi, 1; Pyramid, 2; Duck Flat, 1; Clark's, 1; Salt Marsh, 1; Peavine, 1; Total, 47. The County Convention was set for Saturday, September 20.

Democratic Primaries.

Governor Adams put in the day in Reno, personally superintending his campaign, and the thing looked as the GAZETTE went to press as though he would carry away this county. His ticket was W. F. Berry, Wm. Webster, A. White, John Sunderland, P. J. Kelly, A. D. Griffin. Canavan's ticket was Al. White, John B. Williams, Thomas E. Hayden, J. C. Hagerman, W. A. Walker, Frank Perkins. A very large vote was being polled.
